

Invention Paper

Choose one invention in the history of medicine that you find to be the most important. In 3-4 paragraphs, explain what the invention is, how it has affected modern day health care, and why you picked this invention as the most important.

- Use the google docs default setting for the margins
- Have your Name, Date, Class, and hour on the left side of the page
- Double space throughout the paper (including your name, date, etc.)
- No E X T R A spaces between paragraphs
- Title is centered (do not bold it, underline it or italicize it)
- Indent each paragraph
- For papers with more than one page include page numbers that include your last name (i.e. Martens1...Martens2)
- a paragraph= 4-6 sentences and a specific subject or attitude is addressed

Peer Edit

we will be peer editing this short assignment! Have a peer correct your paper using the following check list. Revisions and editing must be done on rough draft copy which will be turned in with final paper.

Ideas:

___ Ideas are Fresh and original

___ the writer seems to be writing from knowledge or experience and shows insight: an understanding of life and a knack for picking out what is significant.

___ Relevant, telling, quality details give the reader important information that goes beyond the obvious or predictable.

___ The writer develops the topic in an enlightening, purposeful way that makes a point or tells a story.

___ Every piece adds something to the whole.

Conventions:

___ Paragraphing tends to be sound and to reinforce the organizational structure.

___ Grammar and usage are correct and contribute to clarity and style.

___ Punctuation is accurate and guides the reader through the text.

___ Spelling is generally correct, even on more difficult words

___ The writing is sufficiently long and complex to allow the writer to show skill in using a wide range of conventions.

Martens

Health Occupations 1

Self Evaluation

When you turn in your paper rate yourself using the teachers rubric

Example: I give myself a 3 in voice because I addressed the topic in a safe manner yet what I wrote was engaging.

Ideas: I give myself a ____ because:

Conventions: I give myself a ____ because: