

LEGAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Write the word in the space next to its description.

ASSAULT FALSE IMPRISONMENT MALPRACTICE ABUSE BATTERY
INFORMED CONSENT NEGLIGENCE ETHICS LIBEL LIVING WILLS
SLANDER CONFIDENTIALITY DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY ADVANCE DIRECTIVES
PRIVILEGED COMMUNICATION INVASION OF PRIVACY

- _____ 1) Bad practice.
- _____ 2) Threat or attempt to injure in an illegal manner.
- _____ 3) Information which is relevant to a patient's care.
- _____ 4) Failure to perform in a reasonably wise manner.
- _____ 5) Unlawful touching of another without consent.
- _____ 6) Holding or retaining a person against his/her will.
- _____ 7) A spoken false statement which harms reputation.
- _____ 8) Revealing private information without consent.
- _____ 9) Permission granted voluntarily by a lucid person.
- _____ 10) Written defamatory matter about an individual.
- _____ 11) Care that results in injury, pain, or mental distress.
- _____ 12) Privacy of information.
- _____ 13) Moral principles and behavior.
- _____ 14) Allows another person to make decisions for you.
- _____ 15) Documents describing the medical care you will want.
- _____ 16) Describes your wishes about prolonging life.
- 17) What is required before privileged communications can be told to anyone else?
- 18) Who has ownership of health care records?
- 19) What rights do patients have in regard to their health care records?
- 20) List 3 ways health care facilities create safeguards to maintain computer confidentiality.